About KCSR

Kane County Senior Resources (KCSR) is a nonprofit, voluntary organization of professionals who provide a variety of services for senior citizens and those who care for them. The group's mission is to improve the quality of life for senior citizens in Kane County. This is accomplished through networking, education, advocacy and fundraising.

MEETINGS

KCSR meets on the second Thursday of the month at the Elderday Center, 328 W Wilson Street in Batavia. Networking begins at 8:30 a.m. and the business meeting begins at 9:00 a.m.

MEMBERSHIP

If you are a company, organization, or independent professional interested in joining KCSR, please visit our website or contact one of our board members to obtain a membership applications form. The membership fee for KCSR is $50 annually.

Membership in this organization is voluntary and inclusion in this directory does not constitute an endorsement, recommendation or referral to any individual member, business, product or service.

This resource book is updated on an annual basis by Kane County Senior Resources to reflect changes in membership. If you wish to receive updated copies in the future please send your contact information to kcsrsecretary@gmail.com.
